ABSTRACT

This booklet presents the Written Response part of the English 30 Grade 12 Diploma examination in Alberta, Canada. After instructions for students, the booklet presents the first part of the examination in which students respond to Thom Gunn's poem "Tamer and Hawk," which addresses the nature and effect of a ruling passion in an individual's life. The booklet then presents the second part of the examination in which students examine the diversity of ruling passions that influence people's lives and relationships based on the literature they have studied. The booklet provides students with suggested times for completing the examination and space for planning and drafting their responses. (RS)

TAMER AND HAWK

I thought I was so tough, But gentled at your hands, Cannot be quick enough To fly for you and show That when I go I go At your commands.

Even in flight above
I am no longer free:
You seeled¹ me with your love,
I am blind to other birds—
The habit of your words
Has hooded² me.

As formerly, I wheel
I hover and I twist,
But only want the feel,
In my possessive thought,
Of catcher and of caught
Upon your wrist.

You but half civilize, Taming me in this way. Through having only eyes For you I fear to lose, I lose to keep, and choose Tamer as prey.

Thom Gunn

 2hooded—in falconry, a hood or close covering is fitted over the falcon's head when it is not chasing game or in training

Reader's Response to Literature Assignment (Suggested time: approximately 1/2 hour)

In the poem "Tamer and Hawk," Thom Gunn uses a falconry metaphor to suggest the complexities of the passions that can rule one's life.

What does the poem "Tamer and Hawk" convey to you about the nature and effect of ruling passions? Support your response with reference to detail from the poem.

Literature Composition Assignment (Suggested time: approximately 1 1/2 to 2 hours)

Much of literature explores the diversity of ruling passions that influence people's lives and relationships.

Write an essay based on literature that you have studied in which the author examines the nature and effect of a ruling passion in an individual's life. What idea does the author develop regarding ruling passion? Support and develop your controlling idea with reference to specific detail from the literature that you choose to discuss.

Guidelines for Writing

- Choose your selection from relevant short stories, novels, plays, poems, other literature, or films that you have studied in your high school English classes. You must discuss literature other than the poem provided in this examination booklet.
- Focus your essay on your controlling idea regarding a ruling passion. Markers will be looking for evidence that you are responding to the requirements of this assignment as you develop and support your controlling idea.
- Organize your composition so that your ideas are clearly and coherently developed.
